

Pebbles Guest House

Southend-on-sea

Pebbles Guest House is known as one of the finest guesthouses in the Southend area.

Listed in which and Michelin Consumer guides for quality, Pebbles offers it's guests "home from home" comfort.

Located directly on the esplanade in the affluent suburb of Thorpe Bay, just one mile east of the town centre and famous pier, but away from the hustle and bustle of the seafront amusement centre.

Front rooms have breathtaking views over the Thames estuary to the Kent coast, a view that has to be seen to be appreciated. The décor is modern and tasteful throughout and retains it's original Victorian features whilst presenting a 'contemporary feel'
